

*257.—Uniform—Royal Cypher.

(N.L. 67/23.—2.2.1923.)

In pursuance of His Majesty's pleasure, the Regulation governing the wearing of the Royal Cypher has been amended to read as follows:—

The Royal Cypher in dull silver is worn on the Epaulette or on the plaited shoulder cord of the Aiguillette, or in No. 8 (White Full Dress), No. 8A (White Dress) and No. 8B (White Undress) on the shoulder strap of rank. It is placed immediately below the Crown when worn on the Epaulette and when worn on the shoulder strap of an officer of Flag rank; and covering the lowest two rows of lace when worn on the shoulder strap of rank of other officers, the bottom of the cypher being even with the lower edge of the lowest row of lace.
