REFERENCES TO OTHER REGULATIONS AND ORDERS

0101. QUEEN'S REGULATIONS FOR THE ROYAL NAVY require all personnel to wear such uniforms as the Admiralty Board, in pursuance of Her Majesty's pleasure, shall from time to time direct. The uniforms directed to be worn are specified and described in these Uniform Regulations, and except in so far as the colour, material or design of certain items is indicated in the relevant chapters to be optional, the prescribed patterns are to be adhered to strictly. No unauthorised items of uniform or badges are to be worn.

0102. STORES ACCOUNTING AND STOREKEEPING MANUAL (B.R.96) contains the necessary instructions with regard to the methods of issue of clothing generally and also as to various items of temporary loan and special loan not covered by these Regulations.

0103. NAVAL PAY REGULATIONS (B.R.1950) contains instructions for the grants and allowances payable in connection with clothing.

0104. RESERVE AND AUXILIARY SERVICES. Brief descriptions of the distinguishing details of the uniforms of the Royal Naval Reserve, Women's Royal Naval Reserve, Royal Marines Reserve, Q.A.R.N.N.S. Reserve and Royal Naval Auxiliary Service are given in these Uniform Regulations, together with the kit scales for R.N.R., W.R.N.R., R.M.R. and Q.A.R.N.N.R. officers only. Further instructions are in the Orders and Regulations of the various Services.

0105. SEALED PATTERNS AND SPECIFICATIONS. Sealed patterns of uniform clothing items may be seen at the Pattern Rooms, Ministry of Defence, Central Ordnance Depot, Didcot, Oxfordshire. Sealed patterns of associated equipment for Royal Marines are held by the Ministry of Defence, Directorate of Supplies and Transport (AS). For items of clothing procured under contract detailed specifications are issued to contractors when contracts are placed. Brief descriptions of uniform items are given in the relevant chapters of these Regulations. More detailed descriptions of some of the items, for the guidance of tailors, outfitters etc., are in Appendix 3.

0106. COMMANDERS-IN-CHIEF'S ORDERS. Commanders-in-Chief and Flag Officers may at their discretion issue such station orders concerning dress, supplementary to these Regulations, as may be necessary, having regard to the particular climatic conditions of the station. As far as possible these orders should be framed in such a way that the practice followed by all ships on a station and under similar conditions is the same. In particular they may require to issue orders about:

the dates on which the wearing of tropical dress is to start and finish, on stations where blue and white are both worn;

the dates between which jerseys are to be worn (Art. 0415); and, in general, details of dress which are stated in these Regulations to be at the discretion of the Senior Officer.

0107. TROOPING PASSAGES. Instructions for the dress to be worn on air or sea trooping passages will be issued by the authority ordering the passage.

0108. PERSONNEL ATTACHED TO OTHER SERVICES are to continue to wear the uniform of their own Service. In the choice of the dress to be worn on a particular occasion they should conform as far as possible to the orders of the other Service. Exceptionally, instructions are contained in Chapter 3 and Art. 0414A regarding the wear of combat dress and military working dress in certain circumstances by RN personnel in R.M. units.

BADGES AND EMBLEMS

0112. DESIGN OF CROWN IN BADGES. The St. Edward's crown is specified for badges and buttons, but some with the previous Tudor crown are still in issue while stocks last.

0113. ALLIED HEADQUARTERS BADGES. Personnel serving in NATO appointments at SHAPE and its subordinate command headquarters are to wear on their uniform the badges appropriate to their respective commands. For officers this is in the form of a detachable metal pocket badge on the left breast: it is not worn with Stars of Orders. Ratings and R.M. warrant officers, NCOs and men wear the badge on a cloth patch on the left upper-arm (Royal Marines on lovat dress only).

2. The corresponding badges may also be worn, if required, by personnel serving in SEATO and CENTO appointments at the headquarters of those organisations.

3. The badges are available at the various command headquarters for issue on loan to officers and for gratuitous issue to ratings and R.M. warrant officers, NCOs and men.

0114. DUKE OF EDINBURGH'S AWARD. The emblem of the Duke of Edinburgh's Award is not a Service badge, but may be worn on uniform by juniors, R.N. and R.M., and apprentices, only, whilst serving in training establishments. The embroidered badge should be worn in the same manner as skill badges, i.e. by ratings on the right cuff and Royal Marines on the left cuff.

0115. EMBLEMS. No unauthorised flags or emblems may be worn with uniform, but the national flower or emblem may be worn on St. George's Day, St. Andrew's Day, St. David's Day and St.

Patrick's Day, and a poppy on Remembrance Day. Men dressed as seamen, all Royal Marines, W.R.N.S. ratings below Petty Officer and N.N.s below Asst. Head should wear the emblem on the left side of cap, beret or nurse's hat, all others on the left lapel of the jacket.

0116. SHIPS' COLOURS in the form of plain circular rosettes not exceeding 2 in. diameter, without streamers, tassels or other ornaments, may be worn by libertymen in uniform on occasions of Port, Fleet or Squadron athletic competitions. They are normally only to be worn during the competition, but may also be worn when proceeding direct to the ground at which the competition is to take place, subject to local orders of the Commander-in-Chief. They are not to be worn ashore at foreign ports.

2. Royal Marines warrant officers, NCOs and men in private mourning, instead of wearing a mourning band, may, if they wish, cover the second button of the tunic with black crepe.

3. No marks of mourning other than as above are to be worn with uniform.

4. Officers, Fleet Chief Petty Officers, Fleet Chief Wrens and Royal Marines warrant officers are required to wear mourning bands for Service mourning, as ordered. All personnel may wear mourning in uniform, as above, for private reasons except at court when it will be worn only when the court is in mourning.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

0120. JEWELLERY AND TRINKETS. Watch chains, pencil clips, tiepins or other trinkets are not to be visible when worn with uniform.

2. A thin plain gilt or gold chain or clip tie retainer may be worn with shirt-sleeve-and-tie Dresses, except by Royal Marines.

3. No jewellery is to be visible with uniform other than signet rings for men, wedding, engagement and signet rings for W.R.N.S. and the wedding ring for naval nurses.

0121. SIKHS. R.N. officers and ratings of Sikh nationality and religion are to be permitted to wear uniform turbans, provided at Crown expense, instead of caps and to keep their hair long, if they so wish.

2. The uniform turban is to conform to the Indian Navy pattern, as follows:

a. The turban consists of a pugree and a headband.

b. The pugree is a strip of any suitable material (soft muslin is normally used) long enough to go round the head six times, crossing over in the centre, and folded to a uniform width of about $2\frac{1}{2}$ in. throughout. It must cover the hair completely, reaching to the nape of the neck, and from six overlapping layers, evenly spaced and clearly seen on either side of the head. It is secured by folding in at the back, with no loose ends.

c. The headband is a straight band of the same material worn round the forehead, under the pugree, with a triangle of 1 in. base showing in the centre of the forehead where the two sides of the pugree separate after crossing over.

3. A navy blue pugree and a white headband are to be worn with blue uniform, white pugree and blue headband with tropical uniform.

4. The Officers', Fleet Chief Petty Officers', Chief Petty Officers' or Petty Officers' cap badge is to be affixed to the pugree with its base at the apex of the triangle of the headband. The junior ratings' cap ribbon is to go round the pugree, horizontally, at the same level as the badge, with its ends tucked in to the folds at the back.

0122. GROWTH OF HAIR. The Captain is to permit all naval officers and men to wear beards and moustaches if they so desire. When permission to grow is given the use of the razor is to be discontinued entirely, as moustaches are not to be worn without the beard, or the beard without moustaches, except by non-continuous service steward and cook ratings (excluding Maltese), who may wear their beards and moustaches, or moustaches only, or be clean-shaven as each may elect. This concession applies also to Royal Fleet Reservists performing short periods of training, but not to men recalled or retained in an emergency.

2. Officers, warrant officers, NCOs and men of the Royal Marines ashore or afloat may wear moustaches or be entirely clean-shaven, as each may elect. If the moustache is grown no part of the upper lip is to be shaven. Commanding Officers may give permission for officers and men of the Royal Marines to wear beards ashore or afloat in circumstances of extreme climatic conditions, and for special duties, or if ordered for medical reasons.

3. Hair, beards, moustaches and whiskers are to be neatly cut and trimmed and, so far as is practicable, uniformity in length is to be established.

0123. WEARING CIVILIAN CLOTHES

1. Officers may wear civilian clothes on leave.

2. Ratings on leave in the United Kingdom. Civilian clothes may be worn on short leave by all ratings other than those undergoing:

a. New Entry Part I Training.

b. New Entry Part II Training, who may, however, be permitted to wear civilian clothes at the discretion of the Commanding Officer after they have completed 6 weeks' Part II Training or, in the case of Artificer Apprentices, after they have completed their first term's training at H.M.S. Fisgard. All ratings may wear civilian clothes when on leave for a period of over 24 hours.

3. In Commonwealth countries. Civilian clothes may be worn as above at the discretion of the Commander-in-Chief. Commanders-in-Chief, Senior Officers and Commanding Officers of H.M. Ships operating independently abroad may at any time suspend this privilege if local conditions make the wearing of civilian clothes undesirable.

4. In foreign countries the instructions in para. 3 apply, except that officers, ratings and R.M. warrant officers, NCOs and men are not, in the absence of agreement by the local authorities, to wear uniform when on shore except in a port at which their ship is lying. When it is uncertain whether there is any prohibition on the wearing of uniform when travelling inland, inquiry is to be made of the local authorities and such permission as is necessary obtained.

5. In the Irish Republic it is against the law for any member of a non-Irish force to wear uniform in public without special authority. Officers, ratings and warrant officers, NCOs and men are not to travel to, or within, the Irish Republic, either on duty or leave, in uniform. When H.M. Ships call at ports in the Irish Republic on a pre-arranged visit, Commanding Officers may give permission forthwith for the ship's company to land in uniform. In the case of emergency visits the Commanding Officer should on arrival contact the British Embassy in Dublin before allowing libretymen to land in uniform.

6. Entering and leaving H.M. Ships and Naval establishments

a. All ratings, other than those debarred under para. 2, may when granted leave wear civilian clothes on proceeding out of and returning to naval establishments. This privilege, which may be exercised without the requirement of a special request, is to be withdrawn from men in the second class for conduct. On the Captain's authority it may also be withdrawn, for a period of up to 180 days, from men

- (i) who contravene the civilian clothes instructions issued by Commanders-in-Chief, Senior Officers or Commanding Officers, or who otherwise abuse the privilege;
- (ii) whose uniform kit is consistently incomplete or below standard;

(iii) who are guilty of serious misconduct ashore.

This privilege is not to be withdrawn for any other reason.

b. Except as provided in c. and d. no man is permitted to proceed on leave from or return to any of H.M. Ships, or proceed in a Service boat, including a dockyard launch, in civilian clothes.

c. At the discretion of the Commander-in-Chief, Fleet Chief Petty Officers, Chief Petty Officers and Petty Officers may be allowed to wear civilian clothes when proceeding on leave from H.M. Ships and on returning whether by Service boat or otherwise, in all ports of the United Kingdom and in Commonwealth countries, Fleet bases and refitting ports overseas. The Captain is authorised to withdraw the privilege for a period of up to 180 days from any man who abuses it. Commanding Officers of H.M. Ships operating independently on foreign stations may suspend permission if local conditions make the wearing of civilian clothes undesirable.

d. Similarly, leading ratings and below may have the privilege of wearing civilian clothes when landing from H.M. Ships in naval dockyard ports in the United Kingdom, in main naval bases and refitting ports abroad, and at other ports abroad, at the discretion of Commanders-in-Chief and Senior Officers. This privilege is subject to the conditions in a. and in addition Commanding Officers are authorised to withdraw the privilege for up to 180 days from any rating for misbehaviour in ship's boats.

e. The Captain or his representative has full authority to control the standard of dress of men entering and leaving H.M. Ships and naval establishments.

f. The Captain is to ensure that the following instructions are brought to the notice of all men:

- (i) Men wearing civilian clothes remain in all respects subject to the Naval Discipline Act.
- (ii) The Service accepts no liability for loss of or damage to civilian clothes.
- (iii) Royal Navy Identity Card, Form S. 1511, must always be carried when in civilian clothes.
- (iv) Men should not normally change into civilian clothes until immediately before proceeding on leave and should change out of them immediately on return from leave, unless they are serving in a shore establishment in which ratings off duty have been given permission to wear civilian clothes within the establishment outside working hours.
- (v) No visible items of Service uniform may be worn in civilian clothes except raincoats, scarves, shoes, socks, shirts, collars, ties and windproof working jackets.
- (vi) Civilian clothes are to be of a style generally accepted as normal and smart civilian wear.
- (vii) The wearing of headgear is optional.
- (viii) When civilian clothes are worn, marks of respect are to be paid as laid down in Q.R.R.N. Art. 1331.

NOTE: Commanders-in-Chief and Flag Officers have discretion to vary rules (iii) and (v).

7. Royal Marines warrant officers, NCOs and men are subject to the same regulations as naval ratings in regard to the wearing of civilian clothes and to the further regulations thereon in B.R. 1283, Royal Marines Instructions.

8. Women's Royal Naval Service. Rules for the wearing of civilian clothes by members of the W.R.N.S. are given in B.R. 1077, Regulations and Instructions for the Women's Royal Naval Service.

9. Further instructions are contained in Q.R.R.N., Art. 1105, 'Wearing Uniform in Foreign Countries', and Art. 1107, 'Wearing the Uniform of Voluntary Organizations'.

0124. OFFICERS AND RATINGS NO LONGER SERVING. Unless on any particular occasion the Ministry of Defence orders otherwise, R.N., R.M., Q.A.R.N.N.S. and W.R.N.S. officers on the Retired List and those officers on Active List not holding an effective appointment on full pay whose names appear in the Navy List, have discretion to wear the uniform of their respective ranks within the British Commonwealth on State occasions and on other occasions of ceremony, provided it is in the best interests of the Navy to do so.

2. This privilege is also extended to all Fleet Chief Petty Officers, Chief Petty Officers, Petty Officers and R.M. warrant officers and senior NCOs who have completed Continuous Service (CSI) or

Long Service (LSI) engagements, and to Q.A.R.N.N.S. nurses, Fleet Chief Wrens, Chief Wrens and Petty Officer Wrens who have completed at least eight years service.

3. Similar provisions apply to retired members of the respective permanent reserves.

4. The uniform worn in accordance with the above instructions may be either the pattern of uniform which was regulation at the time the individual concerned left the Service or the latest pattern.

0125. CIVILIAN MEMBERS OF THE ADMIRALTY BOARD, when paying formal visits to H.M. Ships and Establishments, will at their discretion wear yachting dress, comprising a peaked cap with a white top (naval officer's pattern) and a special cap badge, and either a navy blue, double-breasted suit with black horn crown-and-anchor buttons or, in hot climates, a civilian white suit. The special cap badge is in the form of a scarlet oval with a black cord rim double-edged in gold, bearing upon it one large and two small gilt anchors with a gilt crown above.

0126. PERSONNEL ON LEAVE FROM ABROAD. Personnel on leave from abroad are to be in possession of uniform which they can wear if detailed for duty.

GENERAL

0201. Queen's Regulations for the Royal Navy require all personnel to wear the proper ribbons for the medals which have been awarded to them and to comply with the instructions respecting the manner of wearing Orders, decorations and medals and the order in which they are to be worn, as laid down in these Uniform Regulations.

0202. It is forbidden to wear any Orders, decorations or medals without authority. Foreign Orders, decorations and medals may be worn only when the Sovereign's permission has been given.

0203. The insignia of Orders, decorations and medals, and the ribands to which they are attached, are issued gratuitously on presentation. Miniatures, medal bars and ribbons for sewing onto garments are provided privately at the individual's expense.

0204. Orders, decorations, medals and medal ribbons are to be worn arranged in the order of sequence (or 'seniority') shown in Appendix 1. The number of each type of insignia of Orders which may be worn with various Dresses is shown in the Table of Dresses (Art. 0301(R.N.) and 0501(R.M.)). When the insignia of more than one Order are worn, the one occupying the first position should be the most senior, unless for any reason a junior or foreign Order is more appropriate to the occasion.

0204A. Decorations or medals must be removed from uniform clothing which is being placed in store.

MANNER OF WEARING

0205. INSIGNIA OF ORDERS. The insignia of the various Orders are as follows:

First Class. Knights of the Garter, Thistle and St. Patrick and Knights and Dames Grand Cross and Grand Commander.—Broad riband (with badge attached). Collar when ordered.

Second Class. Knight and Dame Commander.—Star. Neck decoration (i.e. badge suspended on narrower riband, normally worn round neck).

Third Class. Companion and Commander.—Neck decoration (but the badges of Companions of the Distinguished Service Order and Imperial Service Order are worn as medals only).

Fourth and Fifth Classes. Officers and Members.—Badge worn as medal.

2. With Ball Dress the broad riband is worn under the mess jacket (or woman's bolero or cape) and over the waistcoat (or dress).

3. With Full Dress the broad riband is required to pass under the shoulder strap, and in Dresses which do not include shoulder straps the procedure is as follows:

a. If an aiguillette is worn on the right shoulder the broad riband, other than that of the Garter and Thistle, is worn under the aiguillette shoulder strap. For the Garter or Thistle an additional aiguillette shoulder strap is worn on the left shoulder.

b. If an aiguillette is not worn on the right shoulder the broad riband is worn under a blue cloth shoulder strap ornamented with gold and blue cord, of the pattern worn with 'Staff' type aiguillettes (Art. 0317.1.d.(v)).

0207. COLLAR. The Collar of an Order is worn on certain special occasions as ordered, instead of the broad riband, with Full Dress only (Nos. 1 and 1W Dresses). The Collar is worn under the shoulder straps or epaulettes near the outer edge, hanging at an equal distance back and front, with the badge suspended below the front centre. Collar Days, in accordance with instructions of the Central Chancery of the Orders of Knighthood are Easter Sunday, Ascension Day, Whit Sunday, Trinity Sunday, January 1st, January 6th Epiphany, February 6th The Queen's Accession, March 1st St. David, March 17th St. Patrick, March 25th Lady Day, April 21st The Queen's Birthday, April 23rd St. George, May 1st St. Philip and St. James, May 29th Restoration of the Royal Family, June 2nd the Queen's Coronation, June 10th the Duke of Edinburgh's Birthday, June 24th St. John Baptist, June 29th St. Peter, August 4th Queen Elizabeth The Queen Mother's Birthday, September 29th St. Michael and All Angels, November 1st All Saints, November 30th St. Andrew, December 25th Christmas Day, when her Majesty opens or prorogues Parliament and by those taking part in the Ceremony of an Introduction of a Peer in the House of Lords. In Dresses which do not include shoulder straps the procedure is as follows:

a. If an aiguillette is worn on the right shoulder an additional aiguillette shoulder strap is worn on the left shoulder.

b. If an aiguillette is not worn on the right shoulder a pair of blue cloth shoulder straps as described in Art. 0206.3.b. is worn.

2. The holder of more than one First Class Order, when wearing the Collar of one Order also wears the broad riband of the next Order in sequence. Only one Collar may be worn.

0208. STARS of Orders are worn on the left side.

2. When only one star is worn it should be in the centre line of the breast pocket with the upper point not less than 1 in. below the lip of the pocket, or in the corresponding position on garments without a breast pocket.

than five ribbons to a row, and no row to extend nearer than $\frac{1}{4}$ in. from the shoulder seam, but each row to be completed to maximum width before another is started.

c. Naval and W.R.N.S. ratings and N.N.s—Top or only row: on jackets: level with point of lapel; on blue jumpers: $4\frac{1}{2}$ in. below point of shoulder; on white uniform: 2 in. below point of shoulder. In each case, when there is more than one row, no row is to be shorter than the one above, and the whole display should be as symmetrical as possible about the vertical.

6. Ribbons must not project outward beyond the point of the shoulder, or inward beyond the centre of the garment or under the lapel, and they must all be visible.

0213. MINIATURE MEDAL RIBBONS, $\frac{3}{8}$ in. long and $\frac{1}{4}$ in. wide, are worn only with Mess Dresses. They are not sewn to garments but are worn on detachable, brooch-type bars, in the same positions as miniature medals (Art. 0211.3). They are not worn by Royal Marines officers, who wear miniature medals on occasions when naval officers wear miniature medal ribbons.

0214. ROSETTES are worn on certain medal ribbons and miniature medal ribbons to denote clasps to the medals.

WEARING OF ORDERS, DECORATIONS AND MEDALS WITH CIVILIAN DRESS

0217. The following instructions, which conform to those promulgated by the Lord Chamberlain's Office in the London Gazette for the guidance of all concerned, apply to both serving and retired personnel when in civilian dress.

0218. EVENING DRESS. The occasions on which the insignia of Orders and miniature medals and badges are worn with evening dress are as follows:

a. At parties and dinners when any of the following members of the Royal Family are present:

Her Majesty The Queen
His Royal Highness The Duke of Edinburgh
His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales
Her Royal Highness The Princess Anne, Mrs Mark Phillips
Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth The Queen Mother
Their Royal Highnesses:
The Princess Margaret, Countess of Snowdon
Princess Alice, Duchess of Gloucester
The Duke and Duchess of Gloucester
The Duke and Duchess of Kent
Prince Michael of Kent
Princess Alexandra, the Honourable Mrs Angus Ogilvie
Princess Alice, Countess of Athlone.

(The host should notify his guests if any of these members of the Royal Family will be present.)

b. At parties and dinners given in houses of Ambassadors and Ministers accredited to the Court, unless otherwise notified by the Ambassador or Minister concerned. (A decoration of the country concerned should be worn in preference to a British one, and if both are worn, the former should take precedence ^{over} of the latter.)

c. All official dinners and receptions, including Naval, Military and Air Force Dinners, Dinners of City Livery Companies and public dinners. (The word 'Decorations' on the invitation card to be the intimation from the host that the entertainment is an official one.)

d. On official occasions when entertained by:

H.M. Lieutenant of a county within his county
The High Sheriff of a county within his county
Cabinet Ministers

Ex-Cabinet Ministers

Knights of the Garter, Thistle and St. Patrick

Great Officers of State and of the Queen's Household

Lord Mayors and Mayors

Lord Provosts and Provosts.

(The word 'decorations' on the invitation card to be the intimation from the host that the entertainment is an official one.)

2. With full evening dress the following may be worn:

Broad riband

Up to 4 stars

Not more than 1 neck decoration

Miniature medals.

3. With dinner jackets the following only may be worn:

Not more than 1 star

Not more than 1 neck decoration

Miniature medals.

4. On occasions when it is desired that decorations be worn, invitations should state either 'Evening Dress, Decorations' (for full evening dress) or 'Dinner Jacket, Decorations'. When 'Evening Dress, Decorations' is prescribed those not in possession of full evening dress may wear dinner jacket, with decorations, etc. as in Art. 0218(3).

5. With 'Dinner Jacket, Decorations' it is permissible to wear either a stiff evening collar or a soft collar.

0219. DAY DRESS. The insignia of Orders, decorations and medals (full size) may be worn with formal day dress on appropriate official occasions and at public functions. When decorations are worn with formal day dress on such occasions as a British Legion rally or ex-Servicemen's parade, it is customary to wear medals only, stars of Orders and neck decorations not being worn.

0220. GENERAL. Nothing in the above shall affect in any way the practice of the Knights of the Orders of the Garter, Thistle and St. Patrick, and Members of the Order of Merit, the Order of the Crown of India and the Order of the Companions of Honour with regard to wearing their insignia in accordance with previous custom.

2. Ladies in civilian dress may wear the Orders, decorations and medals to which they are entitled under the same conditions as above, so far as appropriate.

3. The manner of wearing the insignia of Orders, decorations and medals is the same as with corresponding items of uniform.

NOTES

- Band rank and Buglers, when issued with tunic, cloth, yellow braided, may, optionally, maintain 2 shirts knitted cooks in lieu of 1 G.P. shirt.
- 1 pair overall trousers to be withdrawn when blue working dress is issued. When ranks are drafted for service in an R.M. detachment afloat 1 pair overall trousers is to be withdrawn and is to be replaced when the rank is drafted ashore again. The issues of blue working dress to Butchers and Printers count against the issue on draft afloat, and vice versa. Two pairs overall trousers to be withdrawn on issue of coveralls. Men not previously issued with Shorts, blue drill, to be issued with them on next occasion of draft afloat.
- Trousers, No. 1 Dress R.M., in lieu, when stocks of trousers, tweed are exhausted.
- 1 Tunic, serge, to be withdrawn on issue of Tunic, tartan. Drum Major on appointment to CINCPACFLT, or Commando Forces Bands, R.M.S.M., R.M., Junior, CINCPACFLT, or F.O. Plymouth Bands to exchange 1 pr. Trousers, tweed R.M. or Trousers, blue serge No. 1 Dress R.M. for trousers, blue serge No. 1 Dress R.M. Band.

APPENDIX 6

- (e) Tropical clothing is issued to men drafted to a ship or station where it is required or to U.K. based Commando units: issues to the latter count against entitlement on embarkation or draft abroad, unless special instructions to the contrary are given.
- (f) Steel helmet and anti-gas equipment to be returned to store prior to draft to Commando unit.
- (g) Cloth band cape issued to Band ranks and Buglers only on becoming sufficiently trained to take their place in a band for ceremonial. The waterproof band cape (Musicians) is then withdrawn.
- (h) Recruits under training 1 black belt and frog in addition.
- (i) The tunic, cloth, yellow-braided, is issued to Musicians, Buglers, Junior Buglers sufficiently trained to play in bands and ex-Buglers and other ranks in H.M. Ships who perform in bands on ceremonial occasions. The yellow-braided tunic is withdrawn on issue of gold-braided and the ordinary gold-braided on issue of the Drum Major's pattern, which is issued only to the Drum Majors of the Bands referred to under (e) above.
- (j) The issue of non-slip boots to drivers is restricted to those employed on full time vehicle inspection or servicing duty, and is to be authorised by Motor Transport Officers.
