

BLUE UNIFORMS of the ROYAL NAVY

No 1 DRESS

1A

1B

1C

FORMAL DRESS/ UNDRESS

No 2 DRESS

2A

2B

2C

FORMAL EVENING DRESS/ UNDRESS

No 3 DRESS

3A

3B

3C

3D

GENERAL DUTY RIG

No 4 DRESS

4 (I)

IAWD

No 5 DRESS

5

WORK

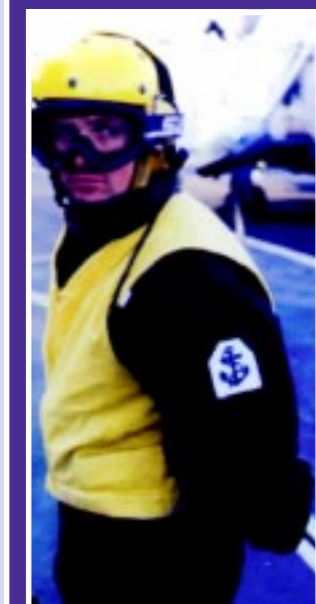

OFFICERS

WARRANT OFFICERS & SENIOR RATINGS

JUNIOR RATINGS

Description

Best uniforms with medals (white belt & gaiters for JRs) armed as appropriate.

Best uniform with medals no arms.

As for 1B with medals ribbons.

Ball dress with white waistcoat (cummerbund for female officers) with miniature medals.

Mess undress worn with cummerbund/miniature medals.

Red sea rig.

Worn all year round, unless otherwise directed. JRs wear short sleeve shirt.

Worn all year round, unless otherwise directed.

Worn all year round, unless otherwise directed.

Worn all year round, unless otherwise directed.

Improved Action Working Dress (IAWD) (Fire Retardant).

Illustrative working rigs worn at sea and ashore.

When worn

Occasions of major ceremony.

Ceremonial occasions when arms are not considered appropriate.

Minor ceremonial & duty personnel.

Occasions of major ceremony when evening dress is appropriate.

Mess functions.

Informal evening wear in ships and establishments.

GDR may be worn with Cap/Tricorn/Beret. Normal daily Working Rig ashore; may be worn at sea, as directed. Female personnel may optionally wear skirts ashore.

AWD will be worn as directed and with jersey HW as required.

Notes

Female personnel may wear skirts except when carrying a sword/rifle.

Captains (male officers) and above may optionally wear dress tail coat/blue mess jacket and/or gold laced/plain blue mess trousers. Mess undress optional for WO/SRs. They may wear No 1C with bow tie. Female personnel may optionally wear skirts ashore.

Collars may be worn up or down as required.