

Admiralty,
Queen Annes Mansions, SW.10
24th November, 1943.

heading

102a - GENERAL ORDERS, ROYAL MARINES

Alteration in Title of Adjutant General, Royal Marines

The title of the Adjutant General, Royal Marines, has been altered to "General Officer Commanding, Royal Marines" by Order-in-Council of 28th October, 1943.

(R.M.No. 10100/43.A.1)

The new title of "General Officer Commanding, Royal Marines" will be used as from the date of receipt of this Order.

2. An Admiralty Fleet Order notifying this change will shortly be published and the necessary amendments to Books of Regulations will be issued in due course.

3. The title of the Deputy Adjutant General, Royal Marines, is under consideration.

H. P. Simpson

Deputy
Adjutant General, R.M.

Distribution - Standard
FRMO.S