Note:

Serial

Rank

- (1) Except for WOs and NCOs in the RMR the gratuitous issue is limited to the badges required for one combat shirt; serving and RMR officers, WOs and NCOs are to purchase a further set or badge. These arrangements match the manner of introduction of the shirts promulgated in RM 10/26/104 dated 28 February 1973.
- (2) When units currently scaled for olive-green shirts are re-equipped with tropical combat bush jackets the issue at serial 7 is to be cancelled and serving personnel are to transfer badges from shirts to bush jackets (the issues at serial 10 do not apply to the re-equipping issue of bush jackets).

3. Manner of Wear. Black-on-green badges are to be worn on combat shirts, olive-green shirts and tropical combat bush jackets as follows:

Combat Shirts, Olive-green shirts and Tropical combat bush jackets

(a)	(b)	(c)
1	Officers	On detachable green sleeves fitted on both shoulder flaps.
2.	WOs	On the right forearm, the bottom point of the badge to be positioned 4 inches above the bottom of the sleeve cuff.
3.	NCOs	On the right upper arm, the bottom point of the badge to be positioned $6\frac{1}{2}$ inches below the shoulder seam.
