

193 ROYAL MARINE FORCES VOLUNTEER RESERVE—CHANGE OF TITLE

1. The Reserve Forces Act 1966 changes the name of the Royal Marine Forces Volunteer Reserve. From 1st October, 1966 this Reserve will be known as the Royal Marines Reserve (RMR). There are no changes in the conditions of service or in call out liability.

2. All references to the Royal Marine Forces Volunteer Reserve in orders and official manuals are to be construed as referring to the Royal Marines Reserve.

3. The address of Headquarters RMFVR will be changed to:

Headquarters
Royal Marines Reserve
Ministry of Defence
Old Admiralty Building
Whitehall
London SW1.

To correct

4. Unit letter references will be changed as follows:

RMR City of London	-	LR
RMR Scotland	-	SR
RMR Bristol	-	BR
RMR Merseyside	-	MR
RMR Tyne	-	TR

5. Official numbers of men joining the RMR will have the prefix RMR.